

The Umpteenth Commandment – Get a relationship with Good Energy Make IT God

IT IS REAL – Connect to IT and see for yourself. Contempt prior to REAL investigation will leave you ignorant To the best ‘sides’ of you That no one will ever know about!

12-9-12 Let me show you how God talks to me My whole life I’ve lived thinking that my middle name had only one L at the end of it It’s that way on All my important documents too I even misspelled my middle name When I enrolled Into a new high school After I ran away from home My jr. year (Rustle lol) Today Just Now I Wrote My Name On Top Of The Declaring Of Independence To CLAIM It As My Own And To Make It Reality And I stared at it Because it was odd To see my middle name in print And because it was underlined in red I also counted the letters in each name 7-6-7 And I finally woke up too “Does my middle name Really only have one L at the end of it?” So I searched my files And sure enough ONE L Was all I found Until I got to my birth certificate! There we go!!

Brandon Russell Puckett 777 Finally complete!

THE REST OF THIS IS CUT AND PASTED AND IN NO PARTICULAR ORDER

Let me tell you about GOD Sometimes I feel so much euphoria That I’m so connected with To a combined Love and praise of love THAT I know I’m a peace of God Instead of a bearded man in a white robe Imagine Every tiny peace of Energy LOVING or NOT liking to be around other Energies You know what I mean? When they connect with each other That’s what they do so it’s no big thing THE biggie connection comes when You notice Then show appreciation back for This Energy Received You love the connection

The only personality My god has Is the one It made personally with me There are some weird things that happen when I make my connection to IT That others have witnessed

A connection to GOD/Energy Can be made Just as powerful As it is to The crustaceans birds water And the animals Who flee Or make them selves ready For coming storm Or bad seasons You can see into your future When you are in constant contact with Energy

Let me tell you about Religions They were created to pacify and divide the people Small kingly nations couldn’t Control it’s kingdom OUR real God’s These water-reptile-noids (definition of first of 3 races of genetically separate advanced civilizations here on earth These were the super-evolved) The water-reptile-noids have had millions of years before us Their brains work just like a reptile Mixed with a similar Idea of our brain It’s easy to see they are smart They’ve fly thru the air ever since man can remember using harmony vibration and electromagnetism Which was also used to build all the pyramids all over the world To set up their kingdoms with money Using a smiling face or patsy To destroy and rebuild always trying to control So one day they will have it And the real devil will come to you!

Here's what I think about the Antichrist That it is not a person put to rule the n W o but someone who chimes in and says this is BULLSHIT and I can run the world better then YOUR plan Then that person will say the exact same thing as Jesus and You'll look at the distractions and proof against me instead of second guessing your sides paycheck for servitude to the REAL EVIL I Serve Gods Love As a Bearer of good feelings about the people And as Jesus quite possibly always said I'm am not GOD But I am Gods Son We all technically and scientifically are Yes there is prove of that too In the last chapters of the highest scientific learning I see God is alive every where Maybe you scientist haven't read far enough yet God/Energy Is Real So is Evil The Masters have made the Religions Evil and Prideful I'll never follow an old story about someone else's idea of God again I'm looking for recognition of His connection with me alone Good is Inside Everyone should find the good side of love.

As for New Age, they've already stolen your new movement; there was a reason for new age to be stolen, to turn you away from the God Connection that you could possibly find out how to make. It's big here in the U. S., especially when Mormonism didn't take like they had wanted it too, but did you notice they introduced an alien connection more prominently, it's all prep. They wanted us to defend the Mormon faith against the other religions in future wars but it was so ludicrous that those damn smart Americans said "fuck no" to it. So now it's just a hidden Christian off branch.

Quantum physics: some people say they believe in science so they can not believe in a God. If you were to go far enough into science, i.e. start at math, add biology, add this that, you'd get to quantum physics; and once you've learned that you'll find your proof of God. God can be proven if you listen to the right scientist; if you listen to the atheist scientist they'll never let you know this.

When you meet another person you actually meet another soul and the energy you create and acknowledge multiplies the more you let the other person see your love for them

There are exact answers to every question WE are afraid to think about Or we prejudge And the conclusional mind sometimes fits a wrong idea into a ok running brain BUT the only outcome is ignorance to anything new A ghost has been following me for years I call him winter ghost In the summer he lived in the barn When new people came on my property I'd get a knock on my windows at night I've also found the girls side of the bed turned down when she headed over To get a relationship with God You need to love the good energy or the bad energy And when you make a valid connection to it THAT LOVE became a God Energy Connected Loved You can connect anywhere to any thing Ideal or Personal Driven or Avoided Imagine you have 99314 Peaces of energy in your body Let's say 314 get distracted in life and become to hate the aspects That have been made into a 'good' thing cause of their love for the hate Well when you die That bad energy doesn't go back to what any one or thing loves So it just hangs out and When ever these energies share a moment together they create a Strong mist and sometimes a Full awakening of the doomed spirit YOUR Good/god energies are used up by the rest of us To create our love connection Water acts the way God does Loves the good Not the bad

Remember Whatever idea you've had in the past Everyone is half right Because we came up with it With love in our hearts And an impression of what good intentions had in mind Every one is half right and No one has to be even half wrong THERE You will find GOD

My relationship with God, Get to know God, after we die. If you have the guts to give it a real shot take another look at God, for I am somewhat of a man of God, Dr Augustien should have told them about connection to their God. I live like our ancestors did 4000 years ago, I love it, I feel great.

The last thing I realized was that 'I thought that I was now subject to become a great preacher of the existence of God, and a savior of man. I'm a Jesus and I feel what he had in him, I'm 100% sure family, by many I am considered a great Great man, being of humbled love for all men,

All you have to do is merge two stories Science and History and you'll get closer to the truth On the final exam for the 'science's highest learning' you'd see that GOD is proven. Dark energy comes from 'undecidedness, in a way, kind of like "evil as I'd describe it" ' But the good energy, you'll find what you learn quantum physics Proves GOD'S energy The proof is in the water Love it and it loves Hate it and it will become 'confused energy'

Ha why would we be made in Gods image It's not like he needed to reproduce or walk or anything I doubt that God's choice of a figure would be the odd human form

God, most likely, isn't in 'the religion' he's there so much as the congregation love each other, if love is there, so is god, if 8 of you drunk and knife wielding punks are planning a revenge beating, then your God was never in that church either, your God is something else completely, not that there's anything wrong with that, I love many things.

HA, I was right, according to Sheldon I'm a physicist, I have a (whatever he said), complete working understanding of everything in the universe, my college was the marines, for my working life I started and helped start companies, I know madder and Energy, and practice the exchanging of, even my devastating writing is my greatest art, my pay it forward for the life that led me to become an experienced uneducated physicist. And since I'm looking for reasons to try to tell you that God/Energy Talks to me thru situations and people that could include one of my religions 'the big bang theory' where Sheldon too has no knowledge of radiohead, even though I love and had downloaded all kinds of different genre's of music. Fact is God/Energy also explained to in another one of my religions, during the days of downloading free stuff online my favorite movie, song and band were never on any sites, Hudsucker Proxy, The Real Me Johnny Adams, and Mama's Pride from St. Louis I think. But anyways, God/Energy is telling me that I had to work my whole life if I want something, and it always seemed like nothing came easy, until I stopped lying to myself and some things were actually easy, money was never. I wanted money and did un-cool things for it, even though I've never achieved an ample sum of it. I was half a quitter by nature, I have noticed a great deal of quitting when I was in trouble financially, it seems like everything was stacked against me. This was AWESOME because all these downfalls make you a more real person and YOU even become smarter ☺ If I had made millions then I'd be like the idiots tied so hard to there money that it's all of their happiness, no-one can control themselves when it comes to their GOD, and YOU will let mankind fall apart to Tyranny as you make a few extra million dollars, I'm talking to all of you in the political game, shame and execution. I can't believe I wrote that I'm in so much trouble but my energy and love for all equal and free people is much to great to be compromised besides I'm only talking about the Idea and not the Act. I know MUST politicians don't know the whole secrets of the society but you've been locked into something evil and you are out of human line. The biggest thing you CFR's need to realize is the new world order will be ran by the wicked, love and peace will always be a joke and ANYONES family can fall to those with more money, the takeovers may not be as bloody as they were throughout history, but you'll wish you hadn't sold out your future for the power. There is one power and humans aren't it, there are EVIL being at the top of this pyramid, no wars really needed to be fought we are all loving people we've just been tricked into fighting them, The Evil's religion is EVIL and it's practiced a lot in their lives, THEIR evil Masters are real they hold all their EVIL ENERGY and the human servants feel this energy in the love COMNECTION they make with it. They may only get into slight evil but the masters make them feel good enough with the exchange of money, all the politicians must belong to these secret societies to even be considered for a leading role, those are the rules folks! See I'm like Sheldon a researched geek but without the cool characterization, lie. I'm a mr monk too putting together all this shit. But I am truly alone on my mission, with years of hatred From the media and government to look forward too, I still think it's worth it!

My application to become your Preacher, Man of God and possible Savior; not saying I'm Lord X Christ or anything, I'm not a god, But I'm here to free you from ourselves:

So every once in a while people visit and smoke me out and then Dog/Energy really messes with me After 4 months and I smoke and the first 70's show I watch it them buying stuff and god played with me the whole show The show was a dream.

I'm not very good at talking to people, except for 1 on 1 Or when I'm preaching to accepting listeners And when I Sometimes practice my 'seldom' religion Mary Jane

Don't limit yourselves by picking 'one best' of anything, I used to be a breast man until I really appreciated the hind quarter, do you see how I skipped the love of 'just ass' and found more appreciation for my females sexual being, now a days I just appreciate all the spirituality 'characteristics' of all my women. My favorite color is whatever the sky's color is, I look good in a red shirt, powerful man here, but I wouldn't limit myself at all by blurting out my one decision that is ruled by my lazy speech patterns. Read that again to understand it. To go along with a carefully though out and carefully decided understanding is one thing, to hear something once and make it your life's standing is another, I've written about someone close to be being the most ignorant man I've ever met, he had one idea about everything, (it was usually the laziest), but it was about whatever worked

Ha I got high and watched late antenna tv and towlie was on and the story matched what was in my head not the high part Surely a gift from God All the sides of our stories are completely made up too 'Your alien group' is over Awesome The signs are everywhere God is talking to me. I've proven it So now it's a treat to notice the feed back I haven't watched a south park in years.

Once I had a bottom fortunate experience to quiet my head, which was busy and insecure, and addicted to meth, a FACT I was last to know. that the more I quieted my head enough and get "IT" a little acknowledgment, the connection makes is stronger and easier, sometimes to the point of my insanity, or . as me and the trees song praises 'it-he-her', "Love"; You and I; !EnErGy!, Almighty Insert your god here only makes it stronger.

As a result of these experiences I've BROKEN Away My FRONT and Became 'THANKFULLY' REAL.

When you meet another person you actually meet another soul and the energy you create and acknowledge connect and Those god energies create a stronger love A new God.

This is the process that led me to my understanding of MY GOD. I lived a busy life, ran away young, had a shaky graduation, joined the military and went on 2 tours. My next 12 years was amazing because I did amazing things. I've also been knocked out a few times by life's trials; some most people will never get the chance to have.

Our spirit will live within god after we die, any part of god that is, good spirits hit the good, love and some become bad by being suppressed in it, it's addictive, but so is the good.

You know what you can't do with god, it's rush him, he's shy about meeting you too, this other entity Energy that shows up when we meet someone, the love can be built, a good or bad bond can always take place, then you are hooded into your our little religion for just the two of you and your views and happenings,

Even now God is making my movie mess up in some new fashion so I'll get to work writing, I'm so lazy when the tv is on.

This is how I'm so special, look at all angles, have consciously made a decision and then learned how to not lie to myself, And my front being broke off to reveal the real, the only way to become real is to break off, or shame the unreal. I picked a better religion than you too,

This is my bible, if you believe, this is yours too, feel free to add notes where ever you'd think could help, just use a different font.

I didn't do an awesome job raising kids, but I did handle myself better because of them, They're mom is the hero, And I still look at her in awe, an Angel doing her best.

I'm calling on the whole world to give peace a chance. I'm also offering my point of view on religions and how best to enjoy and control them from danger. from now on and for the consideration of whom may be your future

Our Government hasn't outlawed freedom of religion yet so let me say that these thoughts are of a special belief where as I'm am connected to My god of my understanding, This is my religion I'm presenting to you, an application for service, And I'll give you a more rounded idea of how you may be able to reach a closer relationship with a real god that is very cool. I'm not talking about Jesus, he was a great man, but then I found out that when Jesus went home he had to be humble, I know that feeling, I've tried going home being big shit, but the reality eventually sets in, and the same thing happened to Jesus, he never went around saying he was god, his family didn't know if he did say it, many men were killed that year for saying they we're god, but I don't think Jesus was one of them, he was teaching about a personable relationship with god, not happening in religious institution, And then they went and broke their first rule and made the man god, just so our religion could be better then your who your saying rose up to heaven with a bunch of virgins, I bash, but I love you because you've given something up for the knowledge of god, I have the same feeling, I love God; love, don't you?, I'm going to need all of the worlds religions attention, we need your followers determination now as we fight the established real leader of the religions, after all they are proven to be involved and plan to place they're man as ruler. A religion shouldn't rule, they should be funneled into a set of beliefs that people have in general, you're belief isn't greater then mine because I can find My God skiing down a mountain. Your religions are yours, use attraction and not promotion to attract future followers, and never restrict your people, if their 'other' religions beliefs are different from an established one, it's up to the person to decide.

How many of you can say that you have an ideology, which is sometimes is the complete opposite of everyone else's, that can change peoples minds about things, convert them by letting them see things from a different prospective, letting them finally rethink everything they've ever been through, joyfully taking 50% fault and moving on with their life, happy as shit.

For my parts it's usually just praise and rejoicing of WHAT led to this 'union'. I'm not trying to preach to you, but it is an awesome union, definitely worth looking into

Can you please do the right and insure freedom. Not from a created and then used against us, a terrorist scare, but from a feel scare, an unwittingly denied access to the plans of letting us get taken over by The already established for 2000 years, The New World Order. The real, on offence, people who want to rule over freedoms. Not out of goodness and order, but out of debauchery, Elite and subjects, And the rich think they're great because of wealth, they were smart, they stole everything from us didn't they, but it looks like there's no money doesn't it, it's somewhere, it's all there's, it's they're power, If you want a free earth, end money. End trade. End fencing out-in the masses, End the need to have us protest you, set us free and give us a perfect society that guarantee's that. We also want to be able to praise anything we want, I'm going to make seeing movies one of my most followed religions, We should all have a choice to establish our own individual beliefs, religions for every factor in our lives, one of my religions is to appreciate paperclip over stapler, or connections to either or not, God, ,

Grace? I'm with her Jake, she's real!,

God could even be greater if we all connect to IT, with IT,

God's understanding, and I'm am certain that the avenues leave too many earmarks on your life, beliefs are only beliefs, and And we know that all the Established Religions have used some incorrect ways to find subjects, Like lying stealing a great movement, breaking they're first commandment and made a man God, when he went home story.,

You can't plan on 'out spiritualizing' anybody, them can all claim the power of God, don't let your selves get out of spiritual control, that is let yourself loose some control and join in on our freedom, once your feet have moved, regain control and steady yourself to give you the batter chance at non-violent action.

At times I used to disprove God when I argued with religious followers, now I realize God isn't in any religions. My God is in my heart, with a least case scenario of LOVE

I'm back to do a follow up: I was changing the channels earlier Dec 6 2012 And I found the 700 club Saying some interesting things They were ALL complete salesmanship bunk And Enough that I don't even remember what it was If you people fall for it You're lost
