To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure of having Nina Dimitrov in my classroom as an observation student. Ms. Dimitrov's eagerness and dedication have been apparent from the start. She has observed, discussed, and participated with the utmost respect. Her professionalism is evident and her ability to strike up a rapport with both peers and students is outstanding. Ms. Dimitrov has taken this opportunity to work one on one with a variety of students, work with small groups, as well as aide in structured whole group activities. She displays strong initiative at all times. Ms. Dimitrov appears comfortable working in all capacities within the classroom setting. Her clerical help has been an asset, as she will correct papers accurately, copy needed work, and construct creative and appealing bulletin board displays from student products. Nina is kind and caring and is sensitive to the needs of all the students and is aware of when to implement modifications in order to help our special needs students.

Ms. Dimitrov has been dependable, responsible, and a joy to have in my classroom. I would welcome Nina in my room for any further observations. I know that both my students and I will miss her.
