

Bahá'í

The word "Bahá'í" is written in a highly decorative, cursive calligraphic style. The letters are filled with a gradient of orange and gold, giving them a three-dimensional, metallic appearance. The word is set against a background of a blue sky with soft, white clouds. The calligraphy is framed by a complex, swirling pattern of thin, golden lines that resemble a stylized cloud or a decorative flourish.